What are the magic words at Puratos?

Innovation and People

These are the key differentiators in our continued success, and have been since Puratos was founded in 1919.

What started as a father and son operation has evolved into a successful international business. Our company now offers a full range of cutting-edge services and solutions to customers in the Bakery, Patisserie, and Chocolate industries in more than 100 countries.

Puratos is a Food Tech company with 129 subsidiaries in 87 countries employing more than 11,021 employees around the world.

One of our strengths as a warm family company is to be able to think in terms of generations rather than quarterly objectives. Continuity and stability are essential, while we continuously embrace the new challenges on our way forward to create a better world together.

People have always been at the heart of everything we do and we strongly believe that great people make great companies.

Over the years, innovation has become an integral part of our "Puratos Magic" culture, encouraging our employees to have an entrepreneurial attitude.

EVERY PATISSERIE CREATION HAS A STORY TO TELL

PATISSERIE

More than ever, consumers crave authentic, delicious patisserie creations that have exciting textures and flavors.

At the same time – as our Taste Tomorrow research confirms – consumers want to know the stories behind their favorite patisserie items and they also want to understand the impact the food they eat has on their health and that of the planet.

How to better satisfy your customers? To meet these demands, we re-invent Patisserie.

Cacao-Trace, our sustainable cocoa sourcing program

At Puratos, we are building a better future for cocoa with a game-changing strategy. Ou Cacao Trace Foundation is a not-for-profit organization that aims to improve the standard of living for cacao farmers, making sure they receive a fair share of the value generated in the chocolate supply chain. The Foundation achieves this by distributing the "Chocolate Bonus", a premium that the Cacao-Trace customers are paying.

Our Mission to Mars program

No one can ignore the urgent need to reduce our global environmental footprint. This is why Puratos launched the ambitious "Mission to Mars" Program, in which we imagine future settlers on Mars having access to healthy, nutritious bakery products. It involves setting up a cutting edge research program and Food Tech Center, PuraDome, using the harshest conditions of planet Mars as our inspiration. We believe that our discoveries during this experiment will lead to amazing, innovative applications. Through disruptive science and new technologies, we will help our customers grow their businesses in more sustainable ways.

Our Mars project reflects our vision for the future and our dedication to long-term research to improve the quality of life on earth and beyond.

Our Way of Acting

As a global group we wish to be perceived in the same way everywhere, by sharing clear values and working principles:

Our Values

COURAGE

Courage means acting with confidence and optimism when facing adversity. It pushes us to explore new solutions, to innovate, to improve continuously. Courage enables us to take calculated risks in the pursuit of our vision.

PASSION

Passion is what inspires us. Passion for bread, patisserie and chocolate, passion for our people, our culture, our customers, our communities, the planet and our results. Passion gives us a higher sense of purpose; it enables us to think long-term while delivering short-term results. Passion pushes us to delight our customers by accomplishing what initially seemed impossible.

QUALITY

Quality is the standard by which we measure all actions. It is our ambition to get it right the first time, always striving to learn and improve. Quality is everyone's responsibility, as we push for the highest standards and continuously improve the ways we operate.

INTEGRITY

Integrity is our moral compass. We treat people with respect, guided by moral and ethical principles, with our values always defining our actions. We have zero tolerance for unethical behavior.

COLLABORATION

Collaboration is how we choose to win. Great things happen when our teams work closely together, combining their diverse backgrounds, experiences, and strengths.

VISION

Our Vision defines our future by building our present. It links our strategy with our purpose, paving the road for our teams to execute with excellence. Vision allows us to dream big, tackle obstacles, and set new ambitions.
